Community Lecture

A Special Lecture, as part of our DASP Literacy Festival.

Bestselling author Tracy Chevalier on her new book.

Wednesday 5th July 2017

In the School Theatre at 7:00 p.m.

About the Lecture:

Bestselling author Tracy Chevalier on her new book, part of the Hogarth Shakespeare Project, New Boy (William Shakespeare's Othello retold).

Tracy Chevalier is best known for her historical novels, including the international best seller 'Girl with a Pearl Earring' and most recently, 'At the Edge of the Orchard'. She is also editor of 'Reader, I Married Him: Stories Inspired by Jane Eyre'. She is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature and has honorary doctorates from her alma maters Oberlin College and the University of East Anglia. She lives with her family in London and Dorset.

Told over the course of one day in Washington D C in the 1970s, New Boy is a novel about fitting in, standing out and knowing which friends to trust from one of the most successful novelists of our time: Tracy Chevalier. The tragedy of Othello is transposed to a 1970s suburban Washington schoolyard. Tracy Chevalier's powerful drama of friends torn apart by jealousy, bullying and betrayal is a taut modern novel that sees her delving into her own childhood in 1970s America for inspiration. Tracy was born in Washington D C where she grew up in an integrated neighbourhood and went to an elementary school with a majority of black students. This experience is what informed her response to Othello.

Admission Free - by ticket only
